Pasha; I shall take him to Cairo with me. W killed and 400 wounded, among the latter Gene; The battle of Aboukir is one of the most success seen. Of the army which the enemy disembar man has escaped. This victory, which will hav influence on the fortunes of the Republic, is du< General Murat.

27th. (Order.) The general-in-clnef, as a m satisfaction with General Murat[r]s cavalry brigi covered itself with glory at the battle of Aboul the commanding officer of the artillery to ban this brigade the two English fieldpieces which sent by the Court of London as a present to < nople, and that were captured in the battle.

The names of each of the three regiments c gade, the 7th hussars, the 3d and 4th dragoon names of General Murat and of Adjutant-Gem shall be engraved on each gun; on the breac Inscribed: Bottle of Aboukir.

August llth, Cairo;

I have English gazettes to the 10th of Jun declared war against the Emperor on the 18th Jourdan has been defeated at Feldkirch and drawn across the Rhine, Scherer, who had been army of Italy, has been beaten at Rivoli, an